The Republic of South Africa is currently implementing the biometric capturing system at ports of entry.

If you are a non-South African citizen, travelling through the ports of entry you will be expected to provide your fingerprints and photograph at the Immigration counter.

To view our biometric process video visit www.youtube.com/DeptHomeAffairs

Biometrics capturing process

NB: Travellers entering or leaving South Africa are advised to proceed to immigration clearance as soon as possible to avoid delays.