Dear Customer,

This month we are celebrating Madiba's legacy, and the 67 years he spent in the service of South Africa and humankind. This year we ask you to spare 67 minutes and take action against poverty. If we all answer the call to do something good each day, we can live up to Nelson Mandela's legacy and help build the country of our dreams.

SAA is also celebrating Africa in the way it knows best - special fares. Click here to explore our wondrous continent with outstanding fares to 25 countries from our ever-expanding Africa routes.

Keep reading to discover the exciting events, great news about SAA retaining its 4-star Skytrax rating!

We look forward to welcoming you on board.

Kind regards

Your chance to become a Mileage Millionaire*

It's our 20th Anniversary and we're celebrating the diversity of our 28 member airlines and their ability to connect people and cultures across the world. Throughout the year we will share all kinds of inspirational ideas and activities with you, starting with one of the world's biggest-ever travel prizes:

Your chance to win a million miles.

In partnership with National Geographic and other Star Alliance member airline frequent flyer programmes, we are giving you an opportunity to become a mileage millionaire - using the points in any way you can dream up.

Simply share a photo and inspirational story about a cultural experience that the Star Alliance network enabled you to have for your chance to win a million miles.

Events

Notting Hill Carnival

Dates: 27 & 28 August 2017

The first Notting Hill Carnival took place in 1964 when London's Caribbean community introduced the carnival to ease racial tensions. Since then, it has become a popular and colourful annual event celebrated by more than 2 million Londoners of all backgrounds.

It is the world's second largest street party after the Rio Carnival held in Brazil, the carnival consists of costume parades, a steel pan band, jazz and reggae performances, and countless street vendors selling exotic Caribbean food.
