South African Airways makes travelling to and around Africa easy and convenient. As Africa's leading airline, SAA knows the continent better than any other airline. SAA, together with our regional partners South African Express, Airlink and Mango offer service to over 75 destinations on the African continent. Whether it is South Africa, Senegal, Ghana or destinations in between, travellers will see why we are the most convenient way to Africa.

Get social with South African Airways.

South African Airways' social media channels offer fans of the airline the opportunity to engage with SAA, learn more about the many destinations we service and remain updated on our latest news & fare specials. SAA posts daily to almost all our channels as well as interacts with and responds to comments/questions from our social audience.

From time to time, fans may even have a chance at winning amazing trips and prizes to destinations in South Africa and beyond via various social media promotions with SAA's hotel and tourism partners.
